Syria works to facilitate refugees' return: Assad

DAMASCUS: Syrian President Bashar al-Assad said that his government is working continuously for the return of refugees to the country. The Syrian leader made the remarks during his meeting on Monday with visiting Alexander Lavrentiev, Russian President Vladimir Putin's special envoy for Damascus, reports Xinhua news agency. Assad said the Syrian government is working to facilitate the return of refugees through rehabilitating the infrastructure, restoring security and stability to the regions which were liberated, and speeding up the reconciliation processes in formerly rebel-held areas.

US combat mission in Iraq to conclude by year-end: Biden

The US Prez did not say if he planned to cut size of troops in the trouble-torn country

AGENCIES Washington

President Joe Biden said Monday the US combat mission in Iraq will conclude by the end of the year, an announcement that reflects the reality on the ground more than a major shift in US policy. Even before Biden took office, the main US focus has been assisting Iraqi forces, not fighting on their behalf. And Biden did not say if he planned to reduce the number of troops in Iraq, now about 2,500.

The announcement comes on the heels of Biden's decision to withdraw fully from Afghanistan nearly 20 years after the US launched that war in response to the September 11, 2001, attacks. Together, the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq have heavily taxed the US military and kept it from devoting more attention to arising China, which the Biden administration calls the biggest long-term security challenge. For years, US troops have played support roles in Iraq and in neighboring Syria, which was the origin of the Islamic State group that swept across the border in 2014 and captured large swaths of Iraqi territory, prompting the U.S. to send troops back to Iraq that year. Speaking to reporters during an Oval Office session with Iraq Prime Minister Mustafa al-Kadhimi, Biden said his administration remained committed to a partnership with Iraq - a relationship that has been increasingly complicated by Iranian-backed Iraqi militia groups. "Our shared fight against ISIS is critical for the stability of the region and our counterterrorism operation will continue, even as we shift to this new phase we're going to be talking about," Biden said.

An American military presence in Iraq is not necessary for our safety and only risks the loss of more American life," Biden said. The US military will continue to assist Iraq in its fight against the Islamic State group, or ISIS. A joint US-Iraq statement said the security relationship will be focused on training, advising and intelligence-sharing. "Our shared fight against ISIS is critical for the stability of the region and our counterterrorism operation will continue, even as we shift to this new phase we're going to be talking about," Biden said.

Paris cops probe bomb attack on Cuban embassy

PARIS: French authorities on Tuesday said they were investigating a gasoline bomb attack that caused minor damage to the Cuban Embassy here.

The Paris prosecutor's office said an investigation was underway. No one has been arrested or claimed responsibility, police said. Paris police said two gasoline bombs hit the embassy late on Monday night. The flames were out by the time firefighters arrived, they said.

The Cuban Foreign Ministry's International Press Center said three Molotov cocktails were thrown, with two hitting the embassy and causing a fire. Cuban diplomats extinguished the blaze as French firefighters and police arrived at the scene, it said.

Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez blamed the United States (US) for the attack. Cuban embassies in many cities around the world have been the scene of demonstrations both against and for Cuba's government in reaction to protests that erupted across the island on July 11-12.

Haiti nabs top official in slain Prez probe

PORT-AU-PRINCE: Authorities in Haiti arrested a top official who served as general security coordinator when President Jovenel Moise was assassinated, his attorney told The Associated Press on Monday.

Jon Lapud Civil joins more than two dozen suspects arrested by Haiti National Police as the investigation continues into the July 7 attack at Moise's private home.

Chief's attorney Reynold Georges, called his client's arrest politically motivated. It wasn't immediately clear if Civil had been charged with anything.

The arrest comes as more than 1,000 demonstrators gathered around one of Haiti's most notorious gang leaders to commemorate Moise. The crowd was mostly dressed in white as they cheered on Jimmy Cheriaz, a former police officer who now leads "G9", a federation of nine gangs that officials have blamed for a spike in violence and kidnappings in recent months. "Everyone needs to wait on my order before we respond to the killing of Jovenel Moise," said Cheriaz; who goes by the name of "Barbecue" and whom police say is behind several recent massacres that targeted civilians living in communities run by other gangs.

Members of the gang led by Jimmy Cheriaz, alias Barbecue, march to demand justice for slain President Jovenel Moise in La Saline near Port-au-Prince, on Monday.

Koreas reopen hotlines, leaders bid to rebuild ties

North Korea's leader Kim Jong Un (C) visiting the Fatherland Liberation War Martyrs Cemetery in Pyongyang to mark the 68th anniversary of the end of the Korean War.

SEOUL: South and North Korea have restored hotlines that Pyongyang severed a year ago when ties deteriorated sharply and the two countries' leaders are renewing efforts to rebuild relations. South's presidential office said on Tuesday.

The decision on the hotlines was made by South Korean President Moon Jae-in and North Korean leader Kim Jong Un who have exchanged multiple letters since April when they marked the third anniversary of their first summit, said Moon's press secretary Park Soo-hyun. North Korea's state news agency KCNA, also said all inter-Korean communication channels resumed operation at 10 am Tuesday (10:00 GMT) in line with an agreement between Moon and Kim. "The hotlines are a rare tool to bridge the two Koreas, but it was unclear whether their reconnection would expedite any meaningful restart of negotiations aimed at dismantling Pyongyang's nuclear and missile programmes.

"The two leaders have explored ways to recover relations by exchanging letters on several occasions, and agreed to restore severed hotlines as the first step for that process," Park said in a statement.

Last victim identified in Florida condo bldg collapse

FORT LAUDERDALE (FLORIDA): The final victim of the condo building collapse in Florida has been identified, a relative said Monday more than a month after the middle-of-the-night catastrophe that ultimately claimed 96 lives and became the largest non-hurricane related emergency response in state history.

Estelle Hedaya, an outgoing 54-year-old with a love of travel, was the last to be identified, ending what her relatives described as a torturous four-week wait. Her younger brother, Ikey Hedaya, confirmed the news to The Associated Press. A funeral was scheduled for Tuesday. It comes just days after rescuers initially concluded the painstaking and emotionally heavy task of removing layers of dangerous debris and pulling out dozens of bodies.

"She always mentioned God, anytime she was struggling with anything," he said, adding he was drawing strength from God, just as he'd seen his sister do in troubling times. The site of the June 24 collapse at the ocean-side Champlain Towers South has been mostly swept flat, the rubble mostly to a Miami warehouse. Although forensic scientists and rabbis are still at work, including examining the debris at the wreckage, seeking to recover any additional remains and personal items. In the end, crews found no evidence that anyone who was found dead had survived the initial collapse. Fire Chief Alan Cominsky has said. Search teams spent weeks battling the hazards of the rubble, including an unstable portion of the building that tumbled down, a recurring fire and Florida's stifling summer heat and thunderstorms. They went through more than 14,000 tons (3,000 metric tonnes) of broken concrete and rebar before finally declaring the mission complete.

57 feared dead as boat capsizes off Libya coast: UN

TRIPOLI: Fifty-seven people have been presumed dead as a boat carrying migrants has capsized off Libya, as per United Nations migration official.

Safa Msehli, a spokesperson for the International Organization for Migration, said the boat left the western coast town of Khums on Sunday. There were at least 75 people on board, reported Al Jazeera.

Eighteen people from the vessel were rescued and returned to shore on Monday, Msehli said.

The survivors, who are from Nigeria, Ghana and Gambia, reported the vessel had stopped due to an engine problem, then capsized amid bad weather, Msehli said. "According to survivors seeking to shore by fishermen and the coast guard, at least 20 women and two children were among those who drowned," Msehli wrote on Twitter.

The capsizing is the latest disaster in the Mediterranean Sea involving migrants and refugees seeking a better life in Europe, said Al Jazeera. Monday's deaths came less than a week after some 20 people also drowned in the Mediterranean Sea, while 600 were intercepted and taken back to Libya.

Renowned Scottish climber Rick Allen dies in K2 avalanche

Renowned British mountaineer Rick Allen died in an avalanche while attempting to open a new route to summit the most-challenging K2 peak.

Sixty-eight-year-old mountaineer from Aboyn, Aberdeenshire, was one of the three climbers attempting the world's second-highest mountain on the China-Pakistan border. Reportedly he was swept away by an avalanche and believed to be dead. He was trying to reach the summit along a route not attempted previously on its southeast face. Everest Today on a social media website posted a report that said: "Legendary Scottish climber Rick Allen has died on the southeast wall of K2."

It added: "Allen together with Spaniard Jordi Tossas and Austrian Stefan Keck was attempting to open a new route, via the southeast wall of the mountain, and was reportedly hit by an avalanche. The other two climbers are said to be safe."

Reporting the incident, 'The New York Times' correspondent Bhadrta Sharma tweeted: "Rick Allen, British climber with a huge climbing history is presumed dead on K2. Avalanche hit climbers in the first camp."

The three mountaineers wanted raise funds for Partners Relief & Development, a UK-based charity where the season's summit was a board member. The charity which works for the welfare of children, confirmed Allen's death on its Facebook page. His body was found near the Advanced Base camp, which, after consultation with his family and friends, was buried under the foot of mighty K2 the same day, reports said.

At 8,648m, Everest is the highest peak but K2 (8,611m) is more challenging, and has a fatality rate of 29% compared with 4% for the world's highest mountain in Nepal. As of July 25, 2021, 477 mountaineers have conquered the K2 peak and 92 have lost their lives while attempting to climb the toughest mountain. K2 is more challenging than Everest as it's a technical peak and witnesses more avalanches, fierce winds and formidable temperatures.

In 2018, Allen went missing in the Himalayas and was feared dead on Broad Peak, the world's 12th highest mountain. Broad Peak also lies in the Karakoram Range along the Pakistan-China border.
